

Since the State of Indiana has passed it's "no call" listing, I have not been bothered by unwanted phone calls trying to get me to buy something. I don't use Credit Cards except for my government travel card. I am a full-time member of the Indiana Army National Guard and need my phone to be free at any given time. Thank you for listening.